Linz in a nutshell:

Linz is the third largest city in Austria and capital of the state of Upper Austria. Highly important to see is its historical city centre, which is very close to the Danube River. An overview of the cultural, sightseeing and culinary opportunities can be found here: https://www.linz.at/english/, while the most important attractions are summarized at the following link: https://www.linztourismus.at/, most importantly the Ars Electronica Center.
